The home at 195 Frasier Street is a Folk Victorian home built in 1901. Located in the Atlanta-Frasier Street National Register District, this house stands at the crossroads of a district that contains some of the oldest and most historic structures in Marietta. There is also a new development of townhomes going in making this a great opportunity to buy, restore, rent and hold. Located only two blocks south of the thriving shops, restaurants, theater, and festivals of the historic Marietta Square.
